1976

The day begins as the sun rises over Dillard Hall. As the campus sleeps, I study in the early morn for an exam at eight. Every now and then, my mind wanders, thinking of the activities which take place as the campus awakens — maintenance men scurrying about, student nurses hurrying to the corner awaiting the bus, the emptiness of the streets at this early hour, and breakfast with that special someone.

Into the swing of things, I consult with one of my professors as to today's lesson. In the library I find the necessary materials needed. The campus is alive with students now – rushing, talking, laughing, preparing for class. I run by the post office to pick up my mail and meet many of my fellow students who've had the same idea.

Lunch rolls around. Boy am I hungry! Let's see, will it be the canteen or Burger King today? There are always long lines outside the cafeteria, but I wonder what they're having for lunch. Those staying in the Third Street dorm head back to change books and will probably grab a bite to eat there. Some students go to the game room and play cards or pool; others congregate on the rocks to do a little midday studying. Many day students would rather sleep in their cars during lunch hour than fight the long lines for service.

As the afternoon session begins, it's time to get back to work. Art, Biology, and Spanish are just a few classes out of my busy schedule. Students with free time now either shop in the bookstore, study under the quiet of a tree, or maybe just sit in the dorm to watch the soap operas.

The day goes on; it's late afternoon, and campus life starts to slow up a bit. My last class was at three o'clock, and now I just take it easy for a while sitting outside talking with the gang. Many students have important runs to make – basketball practice, work at the mall, a “keep in shape run” around the track. Others just take it easy braiding hair or getting with the boys and freaking a little.

Evening rolls around, and the day is just about over. All that's left is the rush of workers leaving Blair Hall after a hard day, the hop to Stop Rite for the evening munchies.

I notice the students leaving for the coming weekend, those getting in a little extra study in the library, and the warmth a mother can pass on to a child. You'll always find that special moment when it's just time for you and yours to pass on tender thoughts.

As night falls, I think of those out of the way places to meet with that special person. No worries of the day to taunt me now, just time for those tender moments. The Ram's Den is the meeting place for many, while others head for the night's jam.

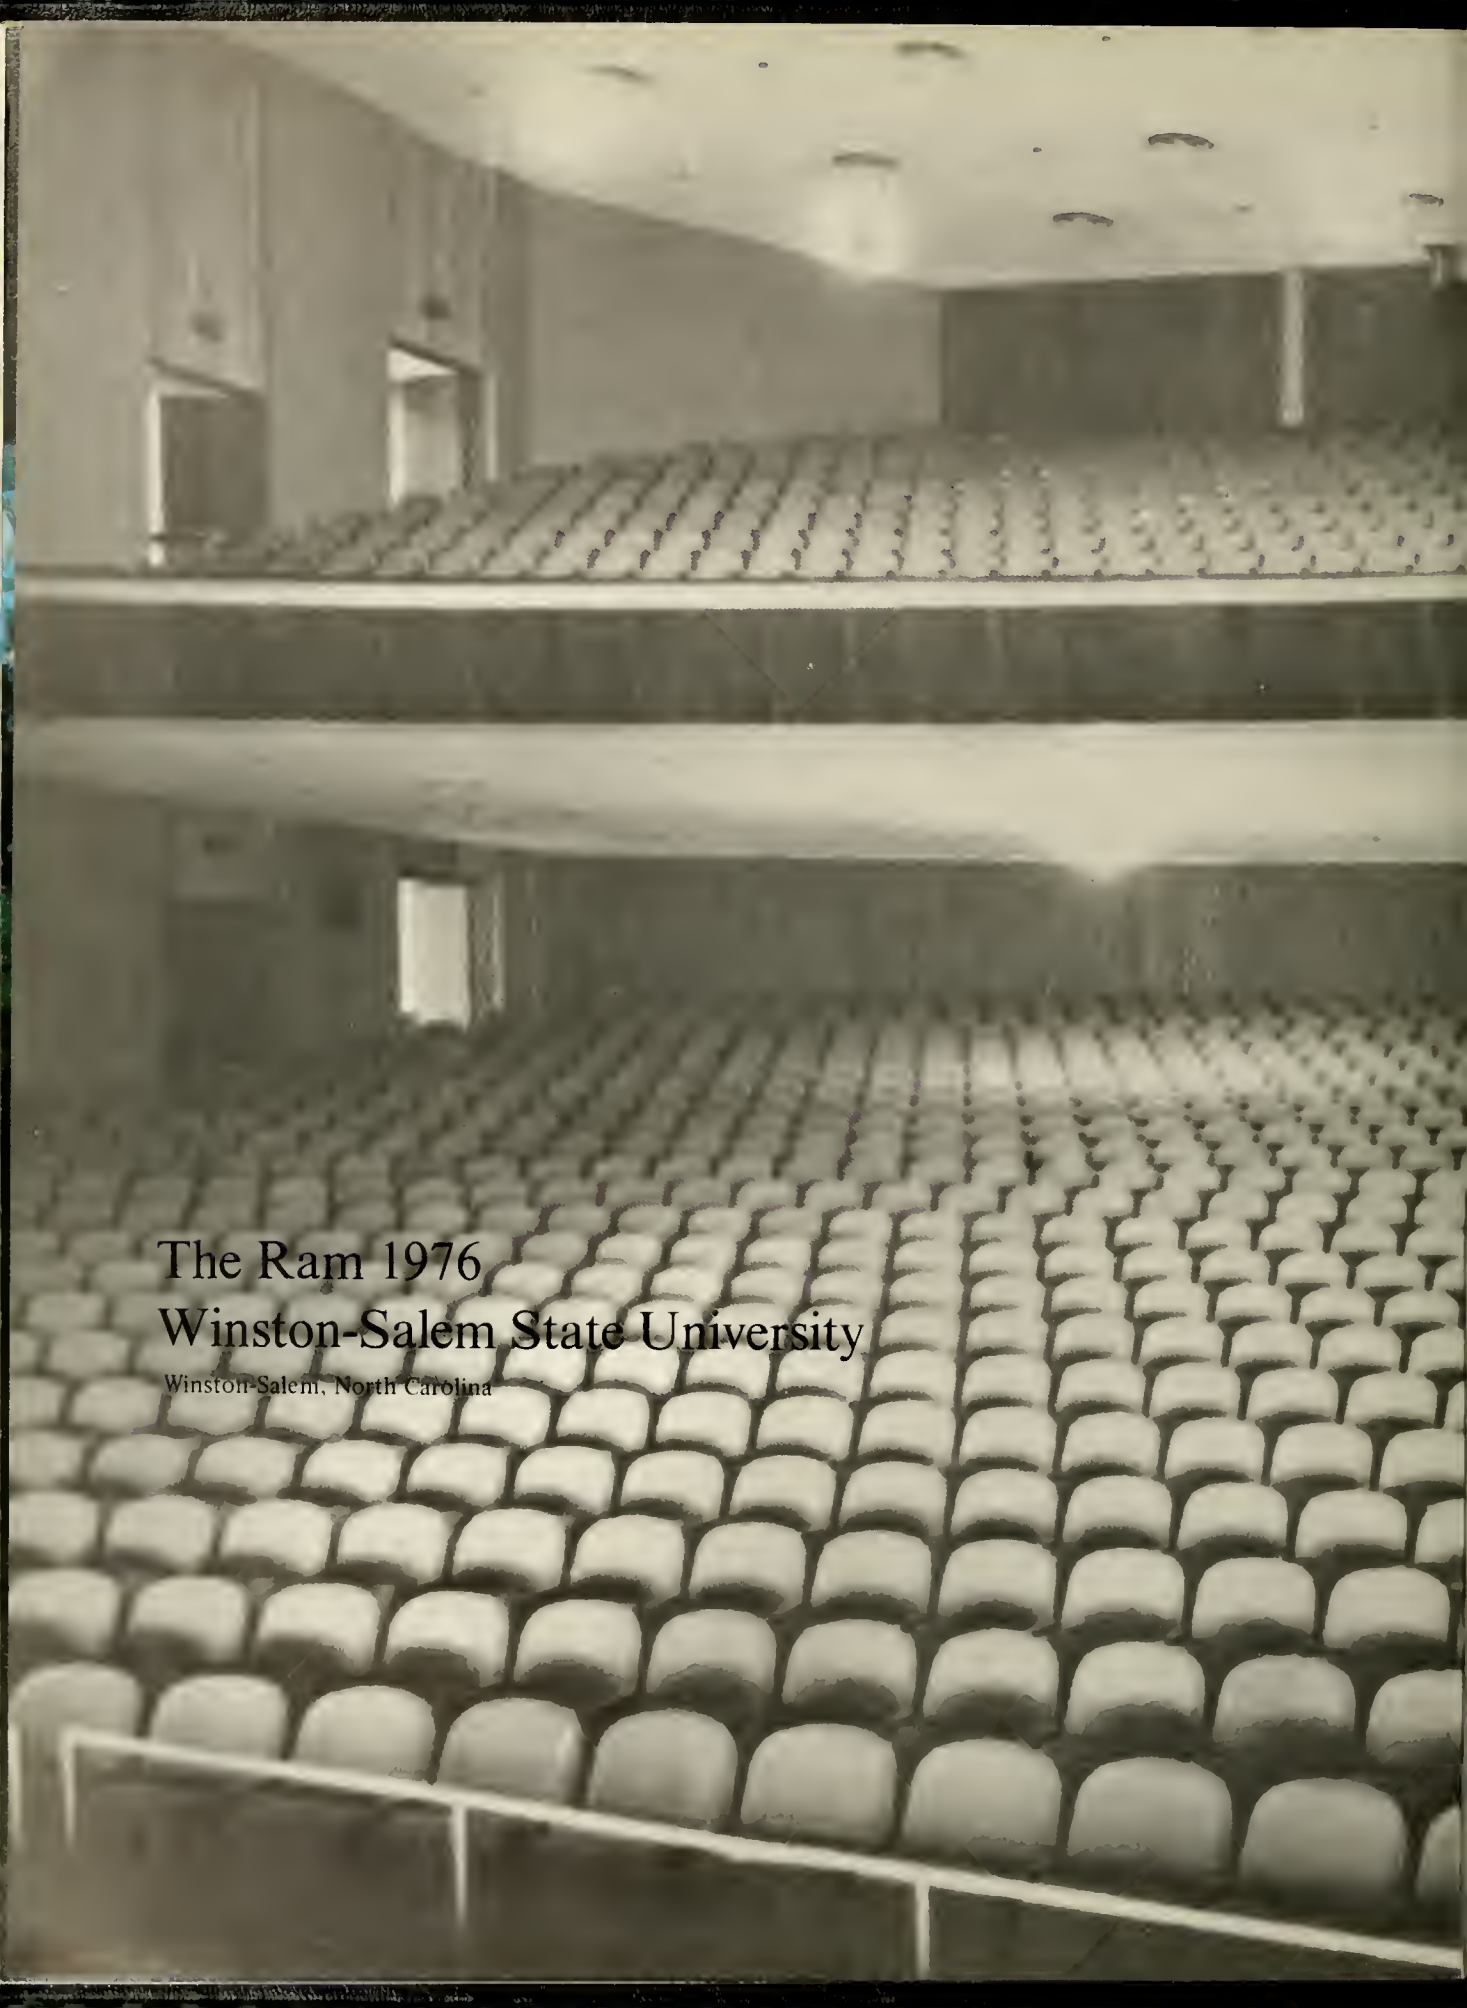

A call home to let my parents know I'm doing fine, then it's off with my favorite man for the evening.

KENNETH R. WILLIAMS
Chancellor of the University

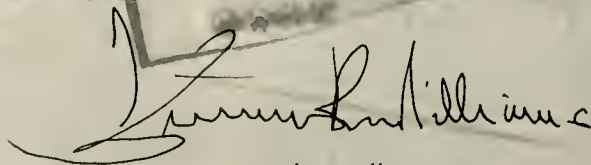

GREETINGS.

Several generations of Winston-Salem State University students and graduates have quoted the unofficial motto of the University — “Enter to learn — Depart to serve.” It has been suggested by a few that these are words from a different past that may not express adequately the goals of present day students or the thrust of a growing and dynamic institution.

Change is necessary. Change for the sake of discarding things simply because they originated in the past may be destructive and is never acceptable. “Enter to learn — Depart to serve” has been a source of inspiration to those who have taken it seriously.

You entered the University to learn. You alone are able to determine if that part of your goal has been accomplished.

We will follow your developing careers with interest and concern.

Chancellor

IN RECOGNITION

MRS. SADIE RICE DANIELS joined the Ram Family here at Winston-Salem State University in 1959 as a typist in the Office of the Registrar, then she served in a dual capacity as secretary to Dr. Kenneth R. Williams and Mrs. Iola Dobson, Deans of Men and Women respectively.

In July of 1975 after 16 years of dilligent labor and much devotion Mrs. Daniels was promoted to Administrative Assistant to the Chancellor, a position never held by a woman at this institution.

"SWEET SADIE", we love you, we're proud of you and we salute you.

DEDICATION

The dedication of any book is a serious matter and the members of the Class of '76 have undertaken the momentous problem of dedicating our edition of THE RAM. We are unanimous in wanting our dedication to be meaningful now and on into the decades that will reflect our four years at Winston-Salem University. We are unanimous in wanting to honor those persons most responsible for our education and for being the causes that undergird our graduation. We are of the accord in our decision to dedicate our yearbook to our PARENTS.

Dear Parent, you have stood behind us . . . you have pushed when we needed pushing . . . you have stepped back when we needed room to grow. You have believed in us and helped us to believe in ourselves. You have offered patience, understanding, and love even when we were impatient, misunderstood, and unlovable. You have dedicated yourselves to us with no reservations . . . and now unreservedly, we dedicate the 1976 RAM to you, our parents. (With insurmountable love, gratitude, and promise).

Ms. Cassandra V. Douglas

Ms. Mary Young

Mrs. Cora Massey

Mr. Beaufort O. Bailey

Mr. Roland S. Watts

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Rarely is anything great accomplished without hard work and disappointments. The success of this yearbook was no exception.

Therefore, the RAM staff is especially grateful to a number of persons. We extend special thanks to MS. CASSANDRA DOUGLAS, MS. MARY YOUNG, AND MRS. CORA MASSEY for diligently working with the staff to insure the success of this year's RAM. They all spent hours performing tasks, listening to complaints and reassuring discouraged staff members.

Special thanks are also in order to MR. BEAUFORT O. BAILEY and MR. ROLAND WATTS, both sharing their special talents, are responsible for the excellent pictures in this edition. We are indebted to all of you for the success of the 1976 RAM.

THE RAM STAFF

IN APPRECIATION

The words "thank you" simply cannot express our gratitude to Mr. Donald L. Benson, advisor to the Class of '76. Dean Benson became our advisor while we were sophomores and has guided us three years through trials and frustrations, joys and successes. Obviously the task was a difficult one; yet, despite his many other obligations, Dean Benson was there when we needed him.

Accordingly, words cannot express our deepest appreciation for his unceasing patience, devotion and wisdom. May our continued success in life forever serve as reminders of the fine guidance we have received from Donald L. Benson.

THE RAM STAFF

MIKE MURRELL

Editor-in-Chief of the RAM

BYRON MURRAIN

Associate Editor of the RAM

Through hard work, long hours and a couple of missed deadlines, the yearbook staff has made available to you a descriptive as well as picturesque view of the many different aspects of the Ram family.

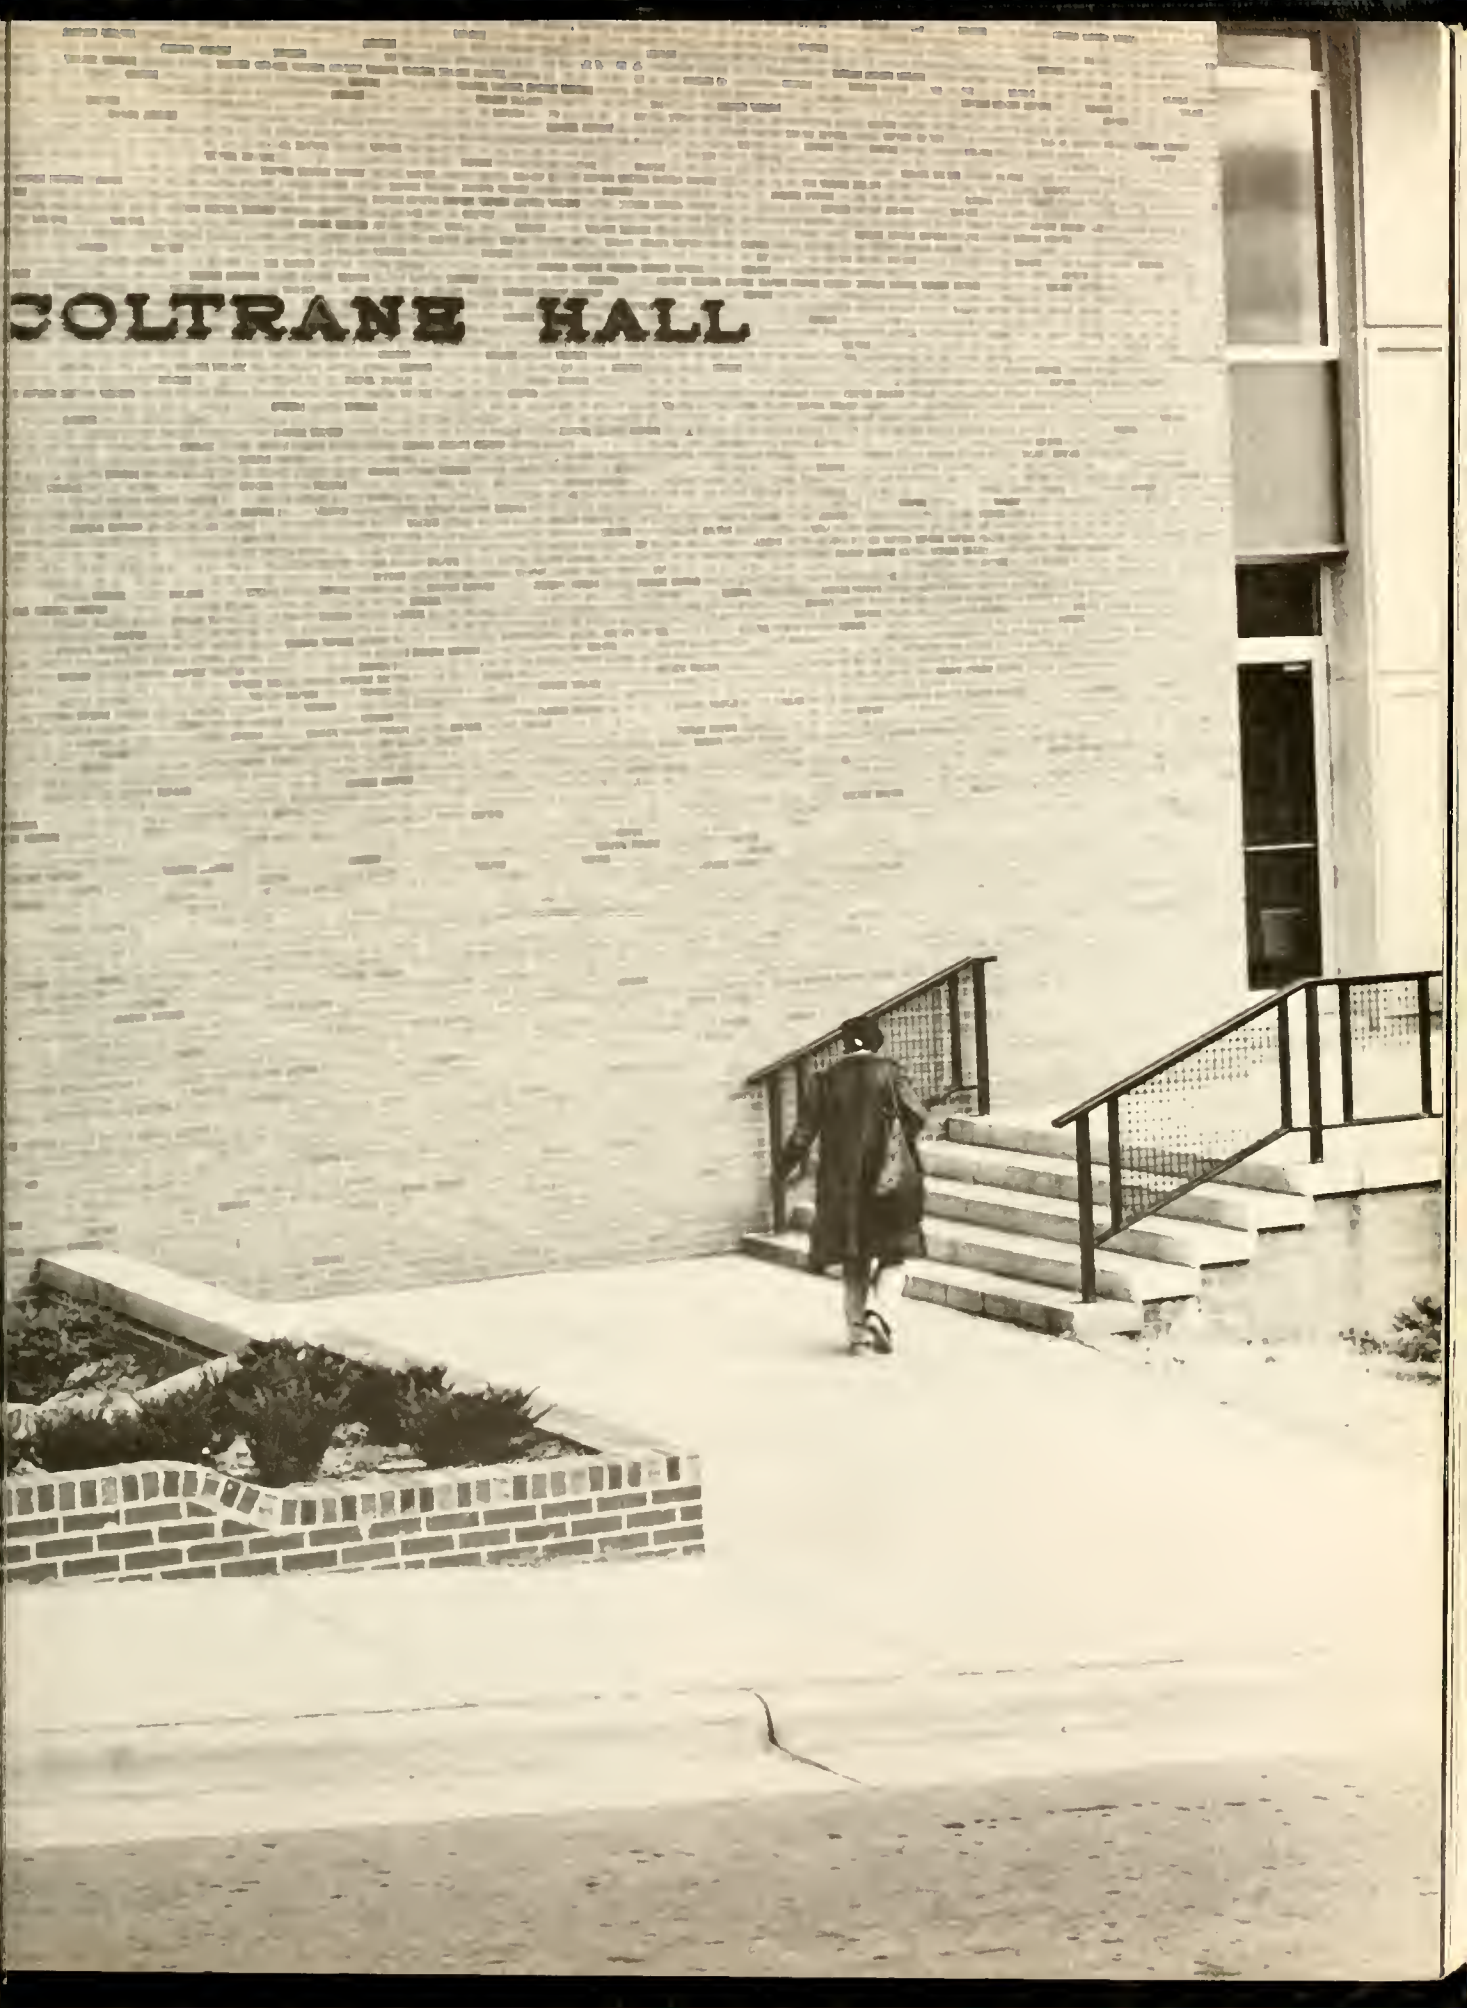

Over the years, I have discovered the natural tendency of people to cling to the past. While working on this book, I have earnestly endeavored to preserve those moments of campus life which soon will be termed the "good ole days" by our Class of '76.

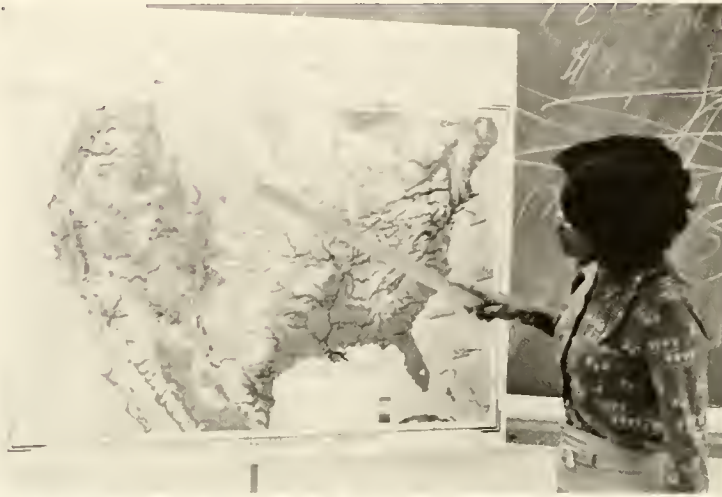

With the students' interests in mind, I have tirelessly struggled to produce a meaningful collection of memoirs.

Special thanks and recognition must be given to our class advisor, Dean Benson, for his assistance and cooperation, and particularly to my co-editor, Byron Murrain and other members of our staff who so faithfully and unselfishly stuck by me to the end. Only with their help could this book have been possible.

HAPPINESS

Happiness can't be measured in a looking glass, nor weighed on a scale from 2 to 4, Happiness can't be counted in numbers or found in dark corridors, Happiness can't be touched or faked by unfelt emotions,
Happiness can't come in your life because you want devotion,
Happiness can't hide behind mascara or lipstick or foxy clothes,
Happiness can't be hot one second and then suddenly grow cold,
Happiness can't replace a friend whose now
gone away,
Happiness can't erase memories nor let one go astray.
Happiness can make you a person beyond compare,
Happiness can take you and keep you
while you're there,
Happiness can make you advance beyond
your dreams,
Happiness can make you a king and her your queen,
Happiness can make you love without being a super-star,
Happiness can reveal the true person you are.
Happiness can exist only if you feel it in your heart,
Happiness can be the beginning of your first and final start.
Happiness loves, lives, smiles, cares, and shares;
Happiness comes, stays, grows, and lasts forever.
Happiness is finding peace of mind, contentment,
and little doubt,
And if you think you're happy,
You'd better check it out!
Happiness can't cry, squeal, or regret,
Tell me mighty Rams,
Have you found your happiness yet?

Living Together*

*If you can look at a person
And not see the color of his skin,
If you can think of what a person is
And not what he has been,
If you can overcome temptation
When others yield unto it,*

*If you can see that help is needed
And then go ahead and do it,
If you can remember that you are
But an instrument in God's hand,
If you can only remember that
You are to help your fellowman.*

LOVE

*It comes upon us without warning
Yet we know it's there.
If it's true, it will stay
But if it's not, it will fade away.*

*We like the feeling — nice and warm.
As long as we have it,
We can come to no harm;
It's as if we were under a certain charm.*

*We thank goodness for it,
But deep down knowing
It's God who should take the bill for showing Us such a bright inside glowing.*

EXTEMPORANEOUS TERMINOLOGY

*Recession, depression, everybody's ession.
Inflation, deflation, ationing up the nation.
Watergate, Integrate, I'm grating to see those gates.
Decisions, Incisions, the cisions all too late.*

*Missiles, Dismissals, issles of trivialities.
Misdemeanors, Schemers, eeming the politicalities.
Arbitration, Resignation, the trations an insanity.
Allocation, Hypertension, what next will they do to me?*

Robert W. Ward

We learn about Ourselves

REFLECTIONS OF PHANTOMS

*I turn from you when I see on your eyes
The shadow of a self I sought to hide,
The aching image of my inner ghost,
Reflections of phantoms I thought I'd lost.
Mirror, mirror, on your eyes,
Showing fears I should disguise;
I turn from you when you look at me
To escape the self I dare not see.*

Ray Williams

SKEPTICISM

*Did you ever think and wonder if you are?
Felt yourself to make sure?
Looked in the mirror to be reassured?
Are your eyes seeing or projecting?
Do you taste what you smell?
Or are we inventing senses?
Is the ground under or over your feet?
The sky in your mind?
Do we walk and move, or fly with time?*

TO ANYWHERE

*I think it is time
 For another dream.
 I welcome the freedom
 Every now and then.
 And what a joy it is to write
 Of the places I have been.*

*Yes, it is time
 For another dream.
 I thrill to the chance
 I get to ride
 Upon the ever moving mind,
 To cities, worlds and countryside.*

SUNNY

*Knowing that I left to be grown and free,
I miss those hometown folks who rocked me on their knees.
Every now and then my heart feels a pain,
And I know nothing can beat going back again.
Yes, I dream of my ma talking happily;
There sits dear old dad, listening patiently.
All my brothers and sisters, shouting with glee,
A picture of the love that would surround me.*

TWO HUNDRED YEARS AND BLACKS IN AMERICA HAVE GONE FROM THE SHACKLES OF THE OLD PLANTATION SYSTEM TO LIVING IN THE SHACKS OF OUR MODERN CITIES GHETTO. AMERICA'S 200th BIRTHDAY SERVES AS LITTLE MORE THAN LIVING PROOF THAT IT DOES NOT TAKE LONG FOR A SOCIETY TO BECOME SICK AND DEGENERATE.

PHI BETA SIGMA FRATERNITY BELIEVES THAT SOME THINGS CAN BE DONE TO CHANGE WHAT IS ALREADY TOO TRUE. AT THE BICENTENNIAL, PHI BETA SIGMA SAYS, "200" YEARS IS TOO LONG. LET US ALL WAKE UP AND COME AROUND.

WHO'S WHO AT WINSTON-SALEM STATE

To be inducted in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities is a prestigious honor. Winston-Salem State has thirty-four such students who have already demonstrated academic excellence and outstanding leadership on campus and within their community at home. The information in the following thumbnail sketches was gathered from questionnaires completed by these students themselves.

1 MITZI ANN BELLAMY is a senior Biology major from Charlotte, North Carolina. She is an active member of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc., and enjoys reading, sewing, and making microscopic cultures. During her stay at W.S.S.U., Miss Bellamy has "obtained an education to help her in future academic goals."

2 A junior Nursing major from Wilson, North Carolina, LYDIA BEST enjoys cooking, sewing, swimming, and playing the piano. She is involved in SNA, Student Union Planning Board, AKA, and the Fellowship Choir. Since becoming a fellow Ram, Miss Best has learned to become independent and make decisions on her own.

3 Meeting new people, crocheting, and reading are just a few of PIER BROADNAX's hobbies. A native of Covington, Virginia, Pier is a junior, majoring in Nursing. During her three years at State, Pier has grown emotionally and intellectually and now realizes that it takes determination and dedication to fulfill her goals.

4 While at W.S.S.U., GERTRUDE BROWN has gained a little more wisdom and has been able, as Solomon said, "to perceive the words of understanding." A junior Biology major from Winston, she has participated in DSA and Science Club and has served as a reporter for two years. Her hobbies include singing and writing poetry, and she considers herself an amateur movie critic.

5 MARGARET BROWN feels that since her admission to State, she has received an education of high calibre to help her further in graduate school. She is a junior Business major who hails from Wake Forest, North Carolina. She loves to read, play cards, play volleyball and is an active member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

9 "Tinkering" with cars and watching sports are a few of GREGORY LEE DRAKE's favorite pastimes. A junior Business Administration major, Gregory is on the Economic Council of S.G.A. and is a dormitory counselor. During his stay at Ramland, he has learned from fellow classmates of other cultural backgrounds, which has helped him to grow more "personally."

10

10 "More than anything else, I have had the feeling of being among people who really care." So says JENNIFER EPPS, a junior Nursing major, who resides in Winston. She enjoys bowling and swimming. Jennifer is a member of DSA and Nursing Honor Club.

8

6 Active in AKA and Sociology Club, RUTH CASSABERRY is a senior Sociology major with concentration in Social Welfare. She enjoys dancing, reading, and playing cards. A local resident of Winston-Salem who resides on campus, Miss Cassaberry has learned, while living on campus, how to share, get along with her peers, and the importance of her education.

6

7 A "master" of music, ADOLPHUS COPLIN, JR., is director of a church youth singing group. He enjoys basketball, traveling, and listening to music. A junior, concentrating in music, Mr. Coplin has obtained confidence in directing musical organizations and has had the privilege of working with some of the finest musicians in North Carolina.

9

A junior from Charlotte, ELISE DONALD is a Music major with concentration in piano. She is active in church and youth groups. Elise enjoys playing the flute and sewing. With the help of staff members, Elise feels she has grown intellectually and musically.

11

11 A senior P.E. major from Trinity, North Carolina, CARSON EWINGS plays football and listens to music. Since attending W.S.S.U., he has learned to relate and understand people as individuals on an individual basis, instead of judging them on the whole.

12 From the eastern coast of North Carolina, LYDIA FARMER, a junior Nursing major, enjoys sports, sewing, and reading. Since entering State, Lydia feels she has matured in mental and emotional aspects and thus had broadened her education.

13 According to MICKEY FLOWERS, a senior professional English major from Greensboro, North Carolina, "Winston-Salem State has proven that college life is

14 RUBIE GIBSON, a senior, majoring in English, is from Rocky Mount, North Carolina. A member of Alpha Kappa Mu, AKA, News Argus, and SGA, she has obtained the knowledge and desire to carry out the school's motto... "depart to serve."

an experience no matter where you're located." Mickey is active as a member of SGA, Editor of News Argus, and a member of Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society, AKA, Drama Guild, and Sigma Tau Delta.

15 From Part Neches, Texas, ANN GIMON, a sophomore, majoring in Political Science, is a member of DSA, Phi Alpha Theta, and Democratic. Since her admission to W.S.S.U., she has learned that older students can prosper, despite personal responsibilities, and can have self confidence.

16 A junior history major from Charlotte, JOANNE GLENN plans to obtain her PhD and become a university professor. While at Winston-Salem State, she has been an active member of Young Democrats, Delta Sigma Theta, Pi Gamma Mu and Phi Alpha Theta Honor Societies, and oral history projects within the community. Her pastime activities are reading and watching and participating in sports.

17

7 JACKIAL HERRING of Rose Hill, is an advanced junior, majoring in English. Jackie is a member of News Argus, vice president of SOLA, and active in Tau Phi Theta and Sigma Tau Delta. Jackie has acquired a sense of belonging, closeness, giving, sharing, and a different outlook on life.

HENRIETTA HOWARD is a senior, majoring in Mathematics. Since attending W.S.S.U., she has learned to grow academically, as well as intellectually. She is President of Beta Kappa Chi, a member of Alpha Kappa Mu, SOLA, and the Mathematics Society. (Not Pictured)

8 "I have really matured politically, mentally, and socially since coming to W.S.S.U.," says WILBERT LEE JENKINS, a junior, majoring in history, from Raleigh. Wilbert is a member of Alpha Phi Omega, Pi Gamma Mu, and Phi Alpha Theta Honor Societies.

19

19 "By attending a Black University, I have learned, not only how to make a living, but how to live" is what DEBRA JOHNSON says, a senior English major from Lincolnton, North Carolina. She is a member of AKA, SOLA, and News Argus.

20 Since her enrollment at State, SYLVIA JOHNSON, a senior Math major from Harrells, North Carolina, has obtained a better understanding of herself and the world around her. She is active in BKK, the Mathematics Society, and N.C.C.T.M.

21 A senior Phys. Ed. major from Winston-Salem, DOROTHY JEAN LEWIS is active in girls' sports, W.S.S.U. Dance Group, and reigns as Miss P.E. Major. Miss Lewis feels that it is important to get to know people by their personality, instead of judging them by what you see on the outside.

21

22 LAURA ALICE LIVERMAN, a senior, is a Political Science major from Columbus, North Carolina. She is active in Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Political Science Club, and SOLA. W.S.S.U. has mapped her course for law school and given her more pride in herself and her people.

23 A member of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. and Young Democratic Club, CHARLENE McMOORE, a junior from Charlotte, is majoring in Sociology. Since attending State, Charlene has the incentive to continue her education at a higher level.

24 1975-76 President of SGA, GEORGE MICHAEL MASON, a senior History-Political Science major, is active in Alpha Phi Alpha, is a history tutor, and has been active in DSA. Since entering the mighty land of the Rams, "I have become a more well-rounded individual, learned how valuable one's fellow man can be, but most of all I have strengthened my love for my brothers and sisters."

24 With law school in his future, DAVID MERRITT would someday like to return to W.S.S.U. as a teacher. From New Bern, North Carolina, David enjoys photography, cooking, and sports. He is a member of Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity, Veterans Club, Political Science Club, and is President of Pi Gamma Mu Honor Society. He considers his three years at State as a Political Science and History major "very challenging and exciting."

25 "My four years at W.S.S.U. have taught me that nothing is above the reach of one who works and waits," according to GLORIA JEAN ROSS of Charlotte. Gloria is active in Sigma Tau Delta English Honor Society, Alpha Kappa Mu, News Argus, Kappa Alpha Psi, and SOLA.

27 A senior Sociology major with concentration in Social Welfare, LORETTA ELAINE SHIELDS from Winston-Salem is an active member of Gamma Phi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. Since her enrollment at State, she has gained a sense of belonging and working with instructors who care.

28 KAREN E. SIMMS, a senior, majoring in English Literature and Secretarial Education, resides in our local community. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Mu, SOLA, Sigma Tau Delta, Urban League Guild, NAACP, and is assistant organist at Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

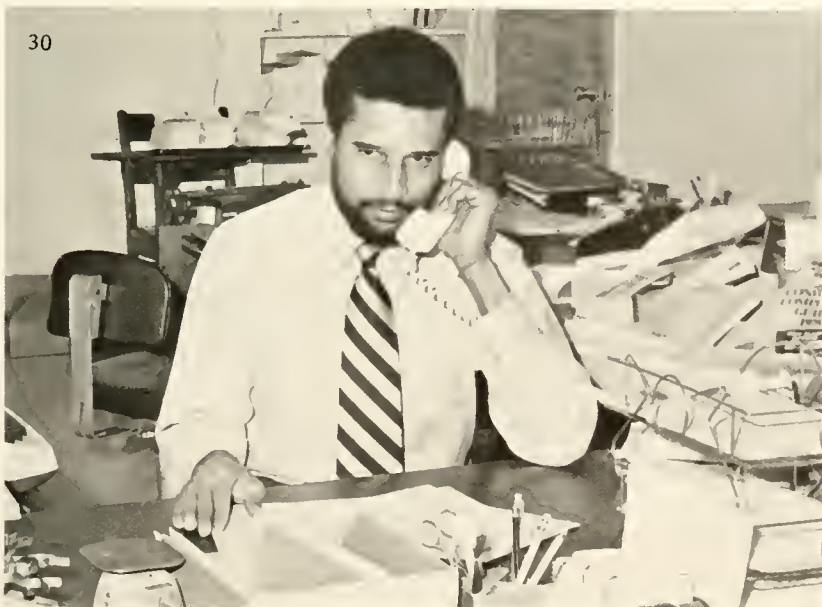

retary and a teacher for Piney Grove Baptist Church. In 1974, she reigned as Miss DSA and has worked on sickle cell screening projects and the Red Cross Blood-mobile. "My three years at State have helped me come one step closer to becoming a professional nurse and continuing my educational studies on the graduate level."

During his years at State, he has received a good education which should help him obtain some very high goals in his own life.

29 SHIRLEY FAYE SUMMERS, a native of Winston, is a senior, majoring in Nursing. She is a member of Student Nurses Honor Club, vice president of DSA, a member of Delta Sigma Theta and Student Nurses Association. She has served as acting sec-

30 JOHN B. WITHERS, a senior Business Administration major from Reidsville, North Carolina, has been an active member of the Young Democrats Club, Veterans Club, Ram staff, and Phi Beta Lambda Honor Society. His hobbies include coin collecting, fishing, and basketball.

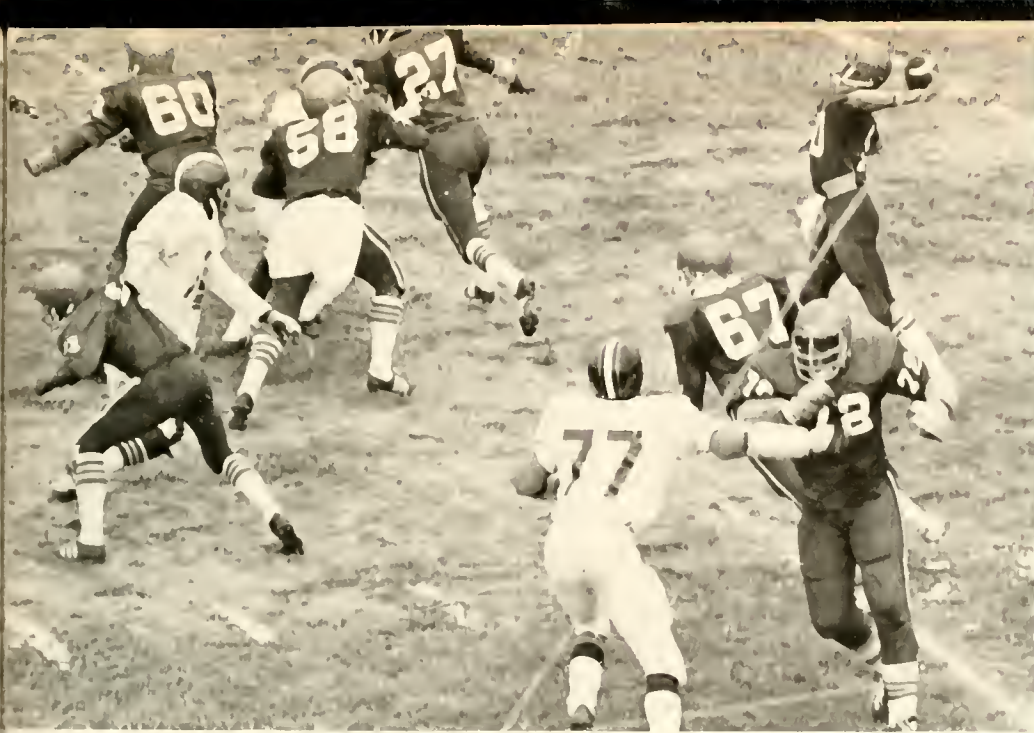

31 Born under the sign Taurus, the Bull, CECIL CORNELIUS SUMMERS is a senior History major. He is active in Alpha Phi Alpha, director of Community Affairs of SGA, and in DSA, Alpha Kappa Mu, Phi Gamma Mu, and Phi Alpha Theta Honor Societies. "I have learned the value of having true friends. I also realize that respect for my instructors and fellow students really means a lot to me."

As we go forth from old State U.
A song of praise we sing to you,

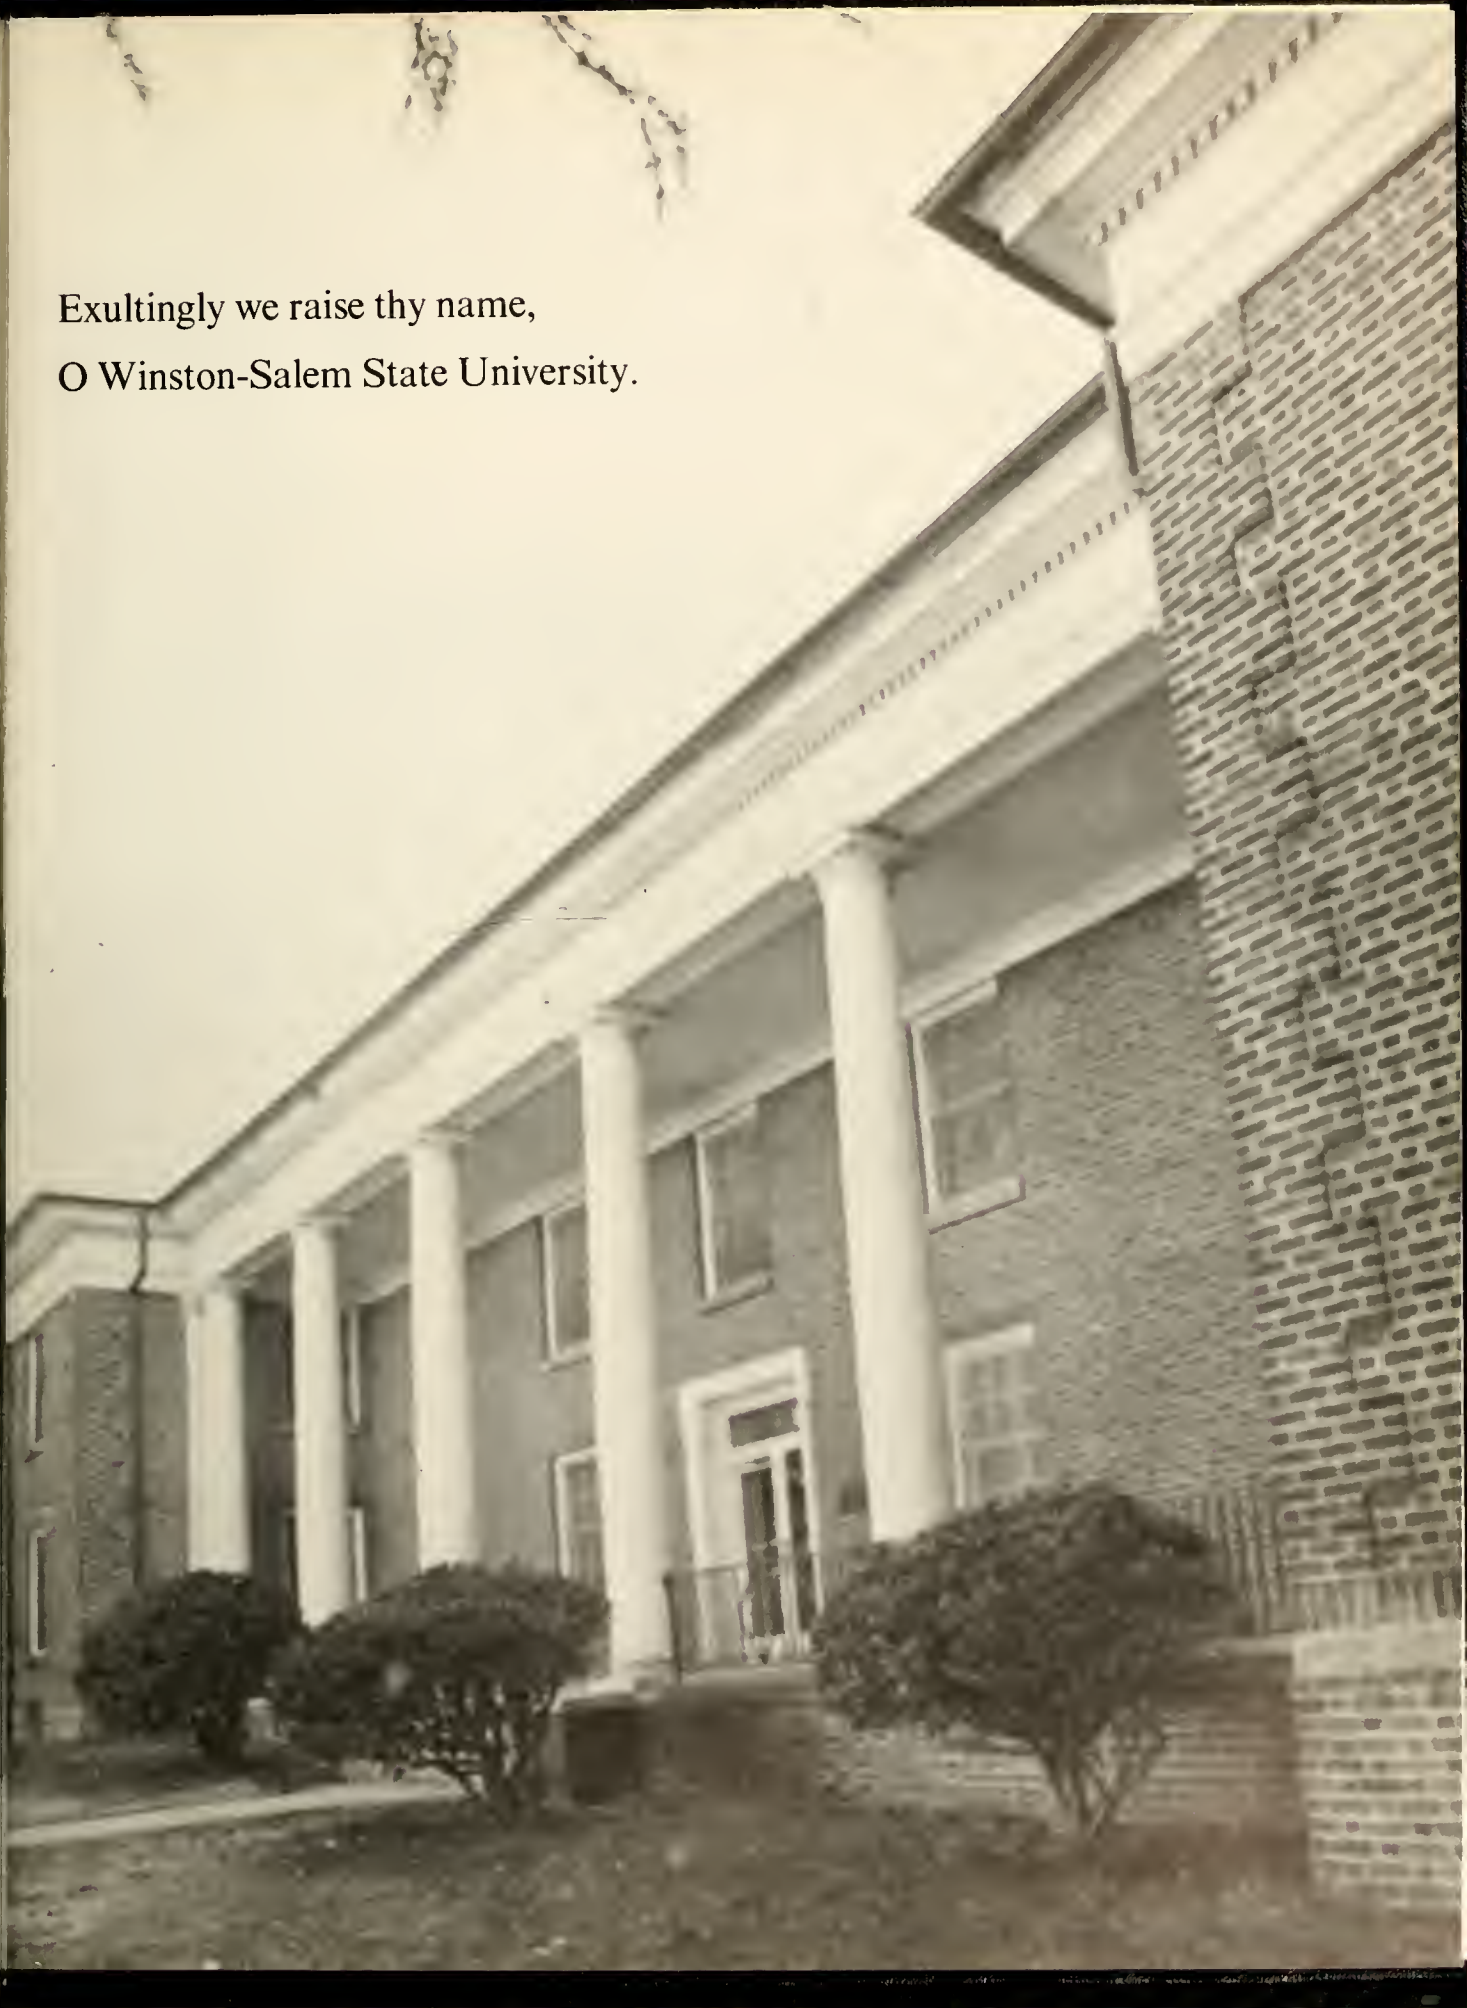

And praises to the memory
Of days at State University.

Thy sons and daughters bring thee fame
Through knowledge which we here have gained

Exultingly we raise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.

As we go forth from old State U.
Good leaders we will always be
And stand for Christianity,
As you've taught us State University.

In all we do we shall proclaim
To all the world thy teaching fame;
As we go forth we praise thy name,
O Winston-Salem State University.
